One Nation Winter1000

Highest Fundraiser Deployment Prize

Proposal, Terms & Conditions

1. Introduction

As part of One Nation's Winter1000 campaign, we will reward the highest fundraiser with the opportunity to join One Nation on a humanitarian deployment.

The prize aims to recognise exceptional fundraising efforts and give the winner the opportunity to witness humanitarian work first-hand, observe aid distributions and gain a deeper understanding of how donations support vulnerable communities.

The competition will encourage participants to engage their families, friends and wider communities in supporting One Nation's winter appeal and helping vulnerable families facing the harsh realities of winter.

Winner announcement: 4 January

2. The Prize

The highest eligible fundraiser will receive the opportunity to accompany One Nation on a humanitarian deployment, subject to the terms and conditions outlined below.

The prize includes:

- An opportunity to join an approved One Nation humanitarian deployment.
- The opportunity to observe selected aid distributions and humanitarian projects.
- First-hand insight into One Nation's humanitarian work and the impact of donations.
- Agreed deployment-related travel and accommodation costs covered by One Nation, as confirmed in writing before travel arrangements are finalised.

One Nation will select the destination country, deployment dates and locations based on operational requirements, security considerations and project schedules. These arrangements will be discussed with the winner following the announcement.

The prize is limited to one winner. There will be no second- or third-place deployment prizes.

3. Competition Terms & Conditions

3.1 Eligibility

1. The competition is open to individuals aged 18 or over at the time of entry.
2. Participants must fundraise through their official Winter1000 fundraising page.
3. Participants must comply with One Nation's fundraising guidelines and all applicable campaign rules.
4. By participating, individuals agree to these terms and conditions.

3.2 Fundraising Deadline and Winner Selection

5. The fundraising deadline is 4 January. The applicable closing time will be communicated to all participants before the competition closes.
6. The winner will be announced on 4 January, following verification of the fundraising results.
7. The prize will be awarded to the eligible participant who has raised the highest total amount in successfully received and recorded donations through their official Winter1000 fundraising page by the deadline.
8. One Nation reserves the right to verify fundraising totals and investigate any discrepancies before confirming the winner.
9. Donations that have not been successfully received or recorded by the deadline will not count towards the final total.
10. In the event of a tie, One Nation will apply a fair tie-break procedure communicated to participants before the competition closes.
11. Any fraudulent activity, manipulation of fundraising totals or serious breach of the competition rules may result in disqualification.
12. One Nation's verified fundraising records will determine the final result.

3.3 Deployment Arrangements

13. The prize is an opportunity to participate in a One Nation humanitarian deployment, subject to operational approval, suitability and safety requirements.
14. One Nation retains sole discretion over the destination country, deployment dates, locations, itinerary and activities.
15. The proposed arrangements will be discussed with the winner after the announcement. The final arrangements will be confirmed by One Nation in writing.
16. The winner must be available for the agreed deployment dates and comply with all reasonable travel, safety and operational requirements.
17. Participation is subject to completion of any required registration, documentation, risk assessments, safeguarding requirements and pre-deployment briefings.
18. The winner must follow instructions from One Nation staff and deployment leaders throughout the trip.
19. The winner is not guaranteed access to every project, distribution site or beneficiary.
20. The prize is non-transferable and cannot be exchanged for cash or an alternative monetary reward.

3.4 Travel Costs and Expenses

21. One Nation will cover the winner's agreed deployment-related costs, as confirmed in writing before travel is booked.
22. The costs covered by One Nation will be clearly specified in advance and may include agreed flights, accommodation, local transport and meals required for the deployment.
23. Personal purchases, spending money, additional accommodation, personal activities and other expenses not expressly agreed in writing will remain the winner's responsibility.
24. The winner must hold a valid passport and meet all applicable entry, visa and travel documentation requirements.
25. The winner must comply with any reasonable travel insurance, vaccination or other requirements applicable to the destination.
26. Any costs relating to a mahram or additional accompanying person must be agreed with One Nation in writing before any arrangements are made. The winner must not assume these costs will be covered.

3.5 Requirements for Female Winners

27. Female winners must be accompanied by a mahram in accordance with One Nation's deployment requirements.
28. The mahram must meet the applicable passport, visa, travel, safeguarding and deployment requirements.
29. Arrangements and costs relating to the mahram must be discussed and agreed with One Nation before the deployment is confirmed.
30. A female winner will not be permitted to participate in the deployment unless the mahram requirement has been satisfied.

3.6 Safety, Security and Changes to the Deployment

31. All deployment arrangements are subject to security advice, operational requirements, travel restrictions and conditions on the ground.
32. One Nation reserves the right to amend, postpone or cancel the deployment if required due to security concerns, emergencies, visa issues, travel restrictions, operational changes or other circumstances beyond its reasonable control.
33. If the planned deployment becomes unsuitable or cannot proceed, One Nation will discuss the available arrangements with the winner. Any alternative deployment will remain subject to One Nation's approval and operational feasibility.
34. The winner must comply with all applicable laws, local customs, safety instructions and One Nation policies while participating.
35. One Nation reserves the right to withdraw the winner's participation where necessary due to safety concerns, failure to meet requirements or serious misconduct.

3.7 Media, Conduct and Beneficiary Dignity

36. The winner must conduct themselves respectfully and professionally throughout the deployment.
37. The privacy, dignity and cultural sensitivities of beneficiaries and local communities must be respected at all times.
38. Photography, filming, interviews and the sharing of beneficiary information must comply with One Nation's media, consent, privacy and safeguarding policies.
39. The winner must not publish sensitive operational information, beneficiary details or deployment locations where disclosure could compromise safety or confidentiality.
40. Any media content created during the deployment must follow the guidance provided by One Nation.

3.8 Winner Confirmation and Acceptance

41. The winner must respond to One Nation within the timeframe specified in the winner notification.
42. If the winner declines the prize, fails to respond, cannot meet the deployment requirements or is unable to participate, One Nation reserves the right to offer the prize to the next eligible highest fundraiser.
43. The winner must accept the final deployment arrangements in writing before travel is booked.
44. One Nation may request reasonable additional information or documentation necessary to confirm the winner's suitability for the deployment.

3.9 General Conditions

45. One Nation reserves the right to amend or withdraw the competition where necessary due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control, subject to applicable law.
46. Any material changes to the competition rules will be communicated to participants.
47. These terms and conditions should be read alongside One Nation's applicable safeguarding, travel, fundraising and operational policies.
48. By accepting the prize, the winner confirms that they understand and agree to these terms and conditions.

4. Winner Announcement

The highest fundraiser will be announced on 4 January following verification of all eligible fundraising totals.

The winner will be contacted directly by One Nation to confirm acceptance of the prize and begin discussions regarding the deployment.

The destination country, dates, locations, itinerary and covered expenses will be confirmed in writing before the winner makes any travel commitments.

5. Summary

The Winter1000 Highest Fundraiser Deployment Prize provides one eligible adult fundraiser with the opportunity to join One Nation on a humanitarian deployment, with agreed deployment-related costs covered by the charity.

The competition will be governed by the terms and conditions above, ensuring a transparent fundraising process and a safe, responsible and well-organised deployment experience.

Organisation: One Nation
Campaign: Winter1000
Winner announcement: 4 January
Prize: One humanitarian deployment opportunity
Eligibility: Adults aged 18 and over
Female winner requirement: Must be accompanied by a mahram